labor groups and strong sup-of the cooperative movement t of the cooperative movement re advocated by Smith W. Brook-t, Washington, Iowa, candidate United States senator in oppo-on to Senator Albert B. Cums, in an address before the Tri-Federation of Labor Thursday at at the Industrial hall in Rock

The speaker attacked the Cum-ins-Esch bill, which proposed impulsory arbitration, and other ns that have raised inbor's labor legislation and asserted that there is too much such legislation being proposed in congress. He pledged his support for legislation desired by labor, the right of col-lective bargaining and the right of labor groups to deal with employ-ers through representatives that they might choose,

Elect Delegates.

The members, after transacting outine business, elected Charles ors, president of Division No. Street Railway Employes' n of Davenport, and Bert Jennings of Carpenters' union No. 4 of Davenport, delegates to the Iowa State Federation of Labor convention to be held May 18.

Cupid seems to be doing a rush ing business this spring in the film studies of the coast. It is the open season for film marriages as well as for baseball it would seem by the looks of the marriage license reports. First there was Doug and Mary, then Betty Bouton and Arthur Jackson, and Louis Weadlock, a scenario writer and now comes the news that pretty little Betty Blythe has gone and Beity confesses that she has been married since April 11 to Paul Scardon, a director. At present Miss Blythe is playing in the Lew Cody picture and Mr. Scardon is directing over at the Goldwyn lot. They are going to take a honeymoon soon, however, and then they will move into a new home in Hollywood.

Miss Blythe, who confesses to 27 years, was born in Los Angeles and educated there. She was on the speaking stage for three years and has been in pictures since. The word from the coast does not say whether Mr. Seardon fell in love with Miss Betty's dark curls, olive complexion or her big blue eyes, but any one of those features would be a worthy cause for having the ding bells ring out. Mr. Scardon is a native of Aus tralia and had a long stage career with many of the leading actors of this country before he entered pic-tures. He directed "Arsine Lupin," Soldiers of Chance" and other well known pictures.

We are telling you the answer to the toothless old hag pictured is the
